Zakynthos

7 reasons TO DISCOVER Zakynthos

- ✓ Environment
- ✓ Culture
- ✓ Hospitality
- ✓ Activities
- ✓ Gastronomy
- ✓ Recreation
- ✓ Beaches

In the emerald waters of the Ionian, at the south-western end of Greece lies Zakynthos, land of poets, artists, music and song.

Homer calls Zakynthos «Yliessa», Plinius «Ylidi» and Virgil «Nemorosa», names associated with the idyllic beauty of the island, its dense forests and verdant nature. Zakynthos can offer an enchanting travel in time for culture lovers, since the island experienced both the Renaissance and the Enlightenment.

The island has been inhabited since the Palaeolithic Age and, due to its prominent geographical location, acted as a crossroads of East and West and attracted the ancient Greeks and Romans, the Byzantines, the counts of the Kingdom of Naples, the Venetians, the French and the English.

Today Zakynthos is an ideal destination. It boasts direct flights to and from the greatest European cities and ferry links to and from the Peloponnese, Kefalonia and Italy.

Its wonderfully warm climate has drawn the loggerhead sea turtle (Caretta caretta) to the beaches of Zakynthos, where it lays its eggs in the golden sand of some of the most beautiful beaches of the Mediterranean.

Winters are mild, with high temperatures and great sunshine.

The long summer of Zakynthos lasts from May to the end of October.

Heavenly beaches, cosmopolitan entertainment, tasty local cuisine, activities, fairs and festivals, serenades and architecture, villages, long walks and discoveries, cafés and shopping, compose an undoubtedly perfect destination with unforgettable hospitality guaranteed.

DAY 1st

From the Castle to the Shore

The first tour in the city starts from high up in the Hill of the Castle [Castrolofos] and the Fortress, which towers over it, as its silent witness and guardian.

Walk to the Venetian Castle, a true monument of the history of the land, with a magnificent view in every direction.

Just below the Castle, lies the Hill of Strani. Here, under the trees, amid the fragrances of the countryside and listening to the sound of the cannons of Mesolongi, Dionysios Solomos wrote the «Hymn to Liberty» [the national anthem of Greece], in May 1823.

On the way from Bochali to the city lies the Chapel of Agios Georgios of Filikon, where Theodoros Kolokotronis took an oath as member of the Filiki Eteria. Next to it, lies the Jewish Cemetery.

The Venetian Castle

Walkways

Wander off to Alexadrou Roma Street, the main financial and social street of the city, which forms the main axis of its urban planning, decorated by the «volta» or «arches», which protect pedestrians from the sun and rain.

Here, you will find a multitude of unique stores selling all sorts of things: clothes, antiques, embroideries, ceramics, liquor, beverages, Zakynthos colognes, jewellery, books, mantolata [nougats] and anything else you can think of.

One of the most significant sights of the city is Agios Markos square, a historical and cultural centre of the island, as it is where the Zakyntians burned the record of the nobles, the famous Libro d' Oro.

Visit the Museum of Solomos and Eminent People of Zakynthos, where Dionysios Solomos and Andreas Kalvos rest, as well as the Agios Markos Catholic Church. Behind the Cathedral, take a moment to admire the Church of Our Lady of Angels.

A pedestrian walkway links Agios Markos square to Solomos square, dominated by the statue of our Poet Laureate.

The square is adorned by the Museum of Zakynthos, where great works of Ionian art, rare icons and woodworks are on display, the Cultural Centre, located where the theatre used to be before the earthquake and accommodating the Public Library, the Historical Records and the Museum of National Resistance, while next to it lies the picturesque church of Agios Nikolas of the Quay.

Noon coolness

If you are lucky, you can enjoy a swim along with the loggerhead sea turtles, since the beach is their nesting place.

If you want to relax and feel rejuvenated, take a swim in the nearby beach of Kalamaki.

If you are lucky, you can enjoy a swim along with the loggerhead sea turtles Caretta caretta, since the beach is their nesting place.

You can also board a glass-bottom boat, to admire the seabed of the island and the sea turtles in their natural habitat.

Then you can unwind, enjoying your meal, in one of the local tavernas, while, if you love water sports, you can have fun with beach volley, a game of rackets or pedaloos and canoes.

Afternoon in Bochali.

Go uphill to Bochali. Relax and admire the magnificent city view under the night lights, and try the «frigania», a delicious and light local dessert served everywhere in Bochali.

Quartet dinner

End the day with some local music and enjoy serenades and arekies in one of the city tavernas, trying delicious local dishes, such as «garlic mush» and «zakynthos stew».

Drinks by the sea

Start the night with drinks in one of the various cafés and bars, located along the coastal street of the city.

From Argasi to Vasiliko

Argasi is the tourist resort closest to the city, with sandy, safe beaches and many tourist services.

In Argasi, the “Vrisakia”, was the city's main source of water supply during the Venetian rule.

The tower of Domenegini hosted many of the meetings of the Filiki Eteria members of the island. Young Ugos Foskopos took shelter here, when persecuted by the authorities after defending the Jews of Zakynthos.

At the south of the island lies Skopos. In ancient times, it hosted the shrine of Artemis, while in its place there now stands the monastery of Panagia Skopiotissa.

The area of Vasiliko boasts some of the most beautiful beaches on the island and the most significant habitats of the loggerhead sea turtle [Caretta caretta], such as Sekania and Dafne, where the Turtle Museum is located.

Zakynthos National Marine Park
[info: nmp-zak.org]

The most beautiful beaches, with fabulous beach bars, on this side of the island are: Kaminia, Porto Zoro, Porto Azzuro, Ionio, Banana, Plaka, Agios Nikolaos, Mavratzis, Porto Roma and Gerakas.

If you enjoy water sports, have fun with water ski, Jet Ski, windsurfing, pedaloes and parasailing.

A relaxed ride

An afternoon tour of the city, the “chora” of Zakynthos, by carriage will allow you to see its most significant sites:

The church of Faneromeni, one of the most significant churches of Zakynthos, a monument of art and culture, the “Xenopoulos” Museum, the church of the Patron saint of Zakynthos Agios Dionysios, with its lovely steeple piercing the sky, the Ec-clesiastic Museum, located just next to the new wing of the Holy Monastery of Agios Dionysios and Strofades. Look for the small elegant religious souvenirs on sale here.

Try a local medieval snack, the fitura, which along with the pasteli [sesame bar], are the main sweet treats of the fairs on the island. Sense the special aroma of the “Flower of Levante” in one of the unique jasmine varieties, grantuka or burgarini.

The church of Agios Dionysios

Zakynthian tastes

With its Mediterranean and Venetian influences, the local cuisine is exceptional. Virgin olive oil, fresh fish, traditional cheese, tasty tomatoes and locally grown white onions, homemade bread and local wine transfer the tastes, images and aromas of the nature of Zakynthos straight into your dishes.

You can taste them in the traditional tavernas scattered throughout the island.

*Nature smiled,
and behold,

From Lagana to Keri

The beach of Lagana is the longest beach on the island, with shallow, warm, calm waters and golden sand, while it is also a habitat for the loggerhead sea turtle [Caretta caretta] and protected by the National Marine Park.

Children can play safely in the calm waters and enjoy games on the beach.

From here, you can board on a glass-bottom boat to see the sea turtles in their natural habitat.

If you like underwater explorations, you can experience the magic of the sea bottom by visiting one of the diving centres.

At the end of this lovely beach, near Lithakia, lies a column dedicated to the father of anatomy Andreas Vesalius.

The picturesque island of Agios Sostis was originally connected to land, but was later separated after the earthquakes of the 17th century.

One of the nicest sights of Lagana is the Sarakina, the ruins of a stately mansion, a typical example of the architecture of Zakynthos.

Lithakia with its beautiful beaches is one of the most picturesque villages of Zakynthos, still hosting many significant buildings of the ecclesiastic art of the island, such as the Churches of Agios Ioannis Theologos and of Panagia Faneromeni.

Indulgence & rest

Just across lies Marathonisi, which you can visit with the special boats departing from here, or you can choose to go to the beach of Marathias and Pyrgakia or Mikres Mizithres.

A few kilometres from the cosmopolitan buzz of Lagana, Keri offers a calm and peaceful alternative, a perfect image of a heavenly option.

There are many things to choose from fine sand, pebbles, rocks, touring, snorkelling, caves and fresh fish.

The lake of Keri is known since antiquity as “Nafthi” or “Piges tis Pissas”, and it was visited by Herodotus.

Going uphill in the afternoon

Wander in the picturesque Keri, another beautiful, traditional village of Zakythos and visit the beautiful church of Panagia Keriotissa.

Near Keri lies Agalas, a village that has preserved its natural environment with traditional houses, pathways and lush nature. Visit the church of Our Lady of Angels, admire the Cave of Damianos and the Twelve Wells of Antronios.

In the afternoon, take a walk uphill to the Lighthouse of Keri situated on the cliff. From the top, one can see Mizithres and a magnificent sunset!

From the sea to the mountains

One of the most beautiful villages of Zakynthos is Macherado.

Admire the church of Agia Mavra, with its magnificent carved steeple, the chapel of Ypapanti and, going uphill on the way to Kiliomenos, make a stop at the Monastery of Panagia Eleftherotria.

At Kiliomenos, visit the church of Agios Nikolaos, with its amazing stone steeple and the Monastery of Panagia Yperagathou.

Buy local products, homemade bread, local ladotyri [cheese], sweetened fruits in syrup and rusks from the Women's Association of the village "E Melissiotisses".

On the mountain overseeing the Ionian

Try a snack of fresh homemade bread with tomatoes, olives, local virgin olive oil, local ladotiri and oregano.

Visit Agios Leontas, with its beautiful church of Agia Paraskevi and continue to Exo Chora, to see the great plane on the square and the perennial olive tree of the village.

Cool off on the steep beaches of the area, such as Korakonisi, Roxa, Limnionas, Stenitis and Porto Vromi, combining a rugged landscape with crystal aquamarine waters.

Try the fruits of the sea! Fresh fish, fished right here, and tasty delicacies, pickled or grilled octopus, squid, shellfish and anything you can think of.

All roads lead to Zakynthos

A crossroads of the East and the West, Zakynthos had always been and still is a meeting place for people, populations, nations and a 'melting pot' for cultures.

You can visit it very easily, wherever you come from:

By road & boat

The island of Zakynthos is accessed by the northwest end of the Peloponnese, through the port of Killini.

- The distance is 17 n.m. and the trip takes only one hour.

The ferries are modern and closed-type.

- The road trip from Patras to Killini takes only 45 minutes.

- If travelling from Athens, via the Athens - Patras national highway, it will only take 3.15 hours to get to Killini.

- If travelling from Thessaloniki, the indicated route is via the Egnatia Odos to Ioannina and then, to Patras via the Rio-Antirrio Bridge (which is a unique sight).

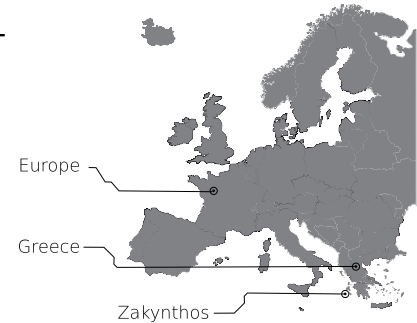

Estimated time from Thessaloniki to Killini: 6 hours.

- If travelling from Larissa, the indicated route is via Lamia - Brallos and then, to Patras via the Rio - Antirrio Bridge. Estimated time: 5.30' hours

By air

- Zakynthos has direct flights to Athens, with one flight a day during the winter months and two flights a day in the summer.

- Zakynthos has also flights to and from all the Ionian Islands and Iraclio of Crete.

Message
by Stelios Bozikis
Mayor of Zakynthos

As mayor of the island of Zakynthos, I would like to welcome our potential visitors.

I invite you to Zakynthos, to be rewarded with a magical, unforgettable vacation.

Visit Zakynthos of history and culture, Zakynthos of poetry and music. Enjoy the unique hospitality of the island and the “manchiadoroi” Zakynthians of satire and self-sarcasm, happy and kind, caring and honest people.

Enjoy the sunshine, the beaches with the finest sand in the Mediterranean, the unique National Marine Park of the loggerhead sea turtle [caretta caretta].

Let the blooming and evergreen Zakynthos of exquisite natural beauty enchant you with its curves and hollows, its hills, valleys and bays.

Try the cuisine of Zakynthos and its traditional, fresh, pure, local products.

Come and walk in its picturesque roads and the broad streets where great Greek and European poets and writers have walked.

Experience Zakynthos with your body and spirit. Let your senses see, hear, smell, feel and taste Zakynthos “full of miracles, strewn with spells”.
